

Fire Mock Drill at PU Library

Apr 19, 2018

In order to check preparedness and create awareness in library readers during the ongoing Fire Safety Week, a fire mock drill was conducted at A.C. Joshi Library, Panjab University, Chandigarh in co-ordination with Fire Station, Sector 11, Chandigarh. Approximately 1000 readers and staff of library were evacuated from building in around four minutes time successfully. The Fire Station Officer gave the demonstration of fire extinguishers. A fire tender was also pressed in service. He also gave small talk on fire safety to the students and staff of A.C. Joshi Library. A pledge was taken by students and staff present in the premises on Swachh Bharat Mission. The Security Office of Panjab University and personnel of Chandigarh Police also assisted the staff in conducting the mock drill successfully. After reviewing the outcome of mock drill exercise, certain suggestions were given by staff. Such exercises will be conducted in future at frequent intervals also. The event was appreciated by one and all.