

Cleanliness Drive at Department of computer science and applications

Department of computer science and applications has conducted cleanliness drive on 1 October 2018. The chairperson Prof R K Singla sensitized the students towards the relevance of Cleanliness in our life and its role for better society.

