

Rally Organized by Centre for Public Health

The Punjab Governor and Administrator, UT, Chandigarh, Shri V P Singh Badnore flagged off the rally Organized by Centre for Public Health, Panjab University and HelpAge India on 1st October on the occasion of 'International Day of Older Persons' At Punjab Raj Bhavan, Chandigarh on the Theme: "Celebrating Older Human Rights Champions". Senior Citizens, Students of Master in Public Health and School Children's from different schools have participated in the program.

The Rally was started from Punjab Raj Bhavan, and end at Skukhna lake Chandigarh. Slogans sought during rally was like 'Dada Dadi, Nana Nani Hame Chya Hame Chaya' by Children's of Schools and Students of PU to create awareness regarding love and respects of Older Persons in society. On this occasion Dr Savita Prashar, Coordinator, Centre for Public Health and Faculty Dr Manoj Kumar, Centre for Public Health were present with students of Masters in Public Health of PU. Mr. Bhavneshwar Sharma, Head, HelpAge India, Chandigarh and their staff were also present.

